Behind The Woodpile consists of three seasoned musicians. We are all singer songwriters who have played in multiple bands over the years.

You can catch Behind the Woodpile playing outdoor concerts at festivals, wineries and many other special events this summer.

The band plays as a trio but can expand to four or five piece. Click on and give a listen to the three songs above.

Behind The Woodpile is a perfect fit for background music at Wine and Cheese functions or full sit down Concerts. Check us out on our website at:

MEET THE BAND:

Wayne Krawchuk, lead singer songwriter of the band has three cds under his belt filled with memorable originals. Wayne plays acoustic and electric guitar. Check out his latest recording: Love Hopped A Train.

Randal Hill is a legend in the Bluegrass community. "Nine time winner of Canadian Bluegrass Mandolinist of the year. Randal has performed and/or recorded with Sylvia Tyson, Ian Thomas, Prairie Oyster, Big Redd Ford. Randal's superb musicianship mixed with his sense of humour makes for an entertaining show."

Ron Cole is the accordion /keyboard player in the band. He has played with everyone from legend, Daniel Lanois, Harrison Kennedy, Banned From Heaven performing as keyboard player in the Laura Cole Band among others.

With all being seasoned veteran we have played most festivals in Ontario and the USA like Harvest Picnic, Mariposa. Hillside, Simcoe, Port Dover and we would love to play your Festival or Event.

"Next up is Behind The Woodpile a three piece band consisting of accordion, banjo and guitar and they are fantastic" The Hammer Monthly Entertainment Magazine
You put these three musicians together and you get Behind The Woodpile. East Coast meets Motown meets Bluegrass meets The Blues and Pop/Rock all combined into a high-calibre professional blend of three part harmonies and beautiful instrumentation.
